PRESENTATION

In 2023, the Wine Up! wine guide turned 10 years old, and I had been in the wine industry for 25 years - literally half my life.

I couldn't be happier with what happened last year, which was full of recognition in different areas. Without a doubt, there could be no better way to celebrate.

Joaquín Parra, Director de Wine Up Consulting

In May, coinciding with the FENAVIN National Wine Fair, the UAES (Spanish Union of Sommelier Associations) gave me its highest award, the TASTEVIN DE CRISTAL, shared with one of the great masters of wine and gastronomy communication in Spain: Javier Pérez Andrés and with the then president of the Provincial Council of Ciudad Real, the body responsible for FENAVIN.

After the summer, as soon as I arrived in Madrid, I received a phone call informing me that I had won the journalism section of the cultural competition organized by the Virgen de las Viñas cooperative, one of the best endowed in Spain. I leave you the link to that winning article, although if you follow me on social networks and are a regular downloader of the guide, you would have read it in the previous edition. The title: “En vendimia ya no huele a mosto”: <https://www.wineup.es/2023/09/en-vendimia-ya-no-huele-a-mosto/>) A story of what has changed in the towns that grow vines and make wine, one of their main economic engines.

That wasn't all, because two weeks later, I received the IWC Industry Awards for BEST WINE GUIDE OF SPAIN IN 2023. In 2022 I was nominated, and since November 2023, that award has adorned my shelves with more and more awards and recognitions.

To end the year, another recognition, in this case international and for Wine UP Consulting, the company behind the Wine Up! guide, the Wine Up Tour and, above all, the communication and marketing work that is provided to wineries. The English magazine LUX Life Magazine, within its annual awards: "Food & Drinks Awards 2023", awarded the prize "BEST WINE MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY 2023".

Most importantly, I'm closing the year with the trust of many wineries in Spain, continuing to grow, learning and, above all, enjoying wine and a sector that is not going through its best times.

Not even a week has passed since I attended the DUERO WINE FEST congress held in Salamanca, which brought together the cream of the national and international wine sector. At least 4 Masters of Wine participated, such as the Spanish Almudena Alberca and Álvaro Ribalta and the English Tim Atkin and Sarah Jane Evans, of whom I can already anticipate that she will be awarded the "Wine Person of the Year" in the 2024 Wine Up! guide.

This congress has addressed very interesting topics, tastings, technical presentations, but, above all, the most important thing: how to address the decline in wine consumption worldwide.

There are data that point to an annual decline of 1% worldwide. You may think that it's not much, not enough to be alarmed about. The point is that if this decline is not reversed and accumulates, in 10 years we could reach a 10% decline and that is a real catastrophe for producing areas, businesses, winegrowers and rural areas that live almost exclusively from the cultivation of the vine.

It is necessary for wineries to be increasingly respectful of the environment, to increase organic wines, and to provide information on labels (which will be introduced in 2024). It is up to regional, national and community public administrations to ensure that this is done, but what are these administrations doing to help the wine sector? In some cases, they are even more restrictive and penalize consumption. It cannot be that they are "praying to God and hitting with the hammer", if I may use this Spanish expression.

This is neither the time nor the place to expound on my ideas about this problem of declining consumption, but I can tell you that I will soon publish an article explaining how beer gained ground on wine in Spain, and I assure you that it will give many people food for thought.

It is necessary to know the past in order to understand the current situation and to be able to set challenges that will help us to change consumption trends in the future. I have been in the sector for 25 years and for 25 years I have always heard the phrase "we have to bring young people to wine", and it will continue to be repeated while those of us who say it/say it continue to get older and closer to retirement age.

We have to find an outlet for production, that's undeniable, and if it can't be done with the wines that have traditionally been made, we'll have to think about other

THE DATA OF THE 2024 GUIDE

The guide continues to reflect the constant improvement in the quality of wines and, with it, the price in all categories. However, it should be noted that the sample is made up of the 1159 wines tasted by the same taster under the same criteria and tasting conditions, and it is important to emphasize, I will not tire of repeating, that these are wines tasted blind.

I am leaving the table that evidences my words of improvement in the sector:

	AVERAGE PRICE	AVERAGE POINTS	TOTAL SAMPLES
GUÍA 2024	16,25 €	91,43	1159

B.I.C. – BEST BRANDY	39,24 €	94,31	12

As can be seen, there has been a significant increase in the number of wines classified as Very Good, while the number of wines classified as Acceptable has decreased. This is a clear reflection of the overall improvement in the quality of wines in Spain.

In addition to the improvement in quality, there has also been a general increase in prices. This is due to a number of factors, including the increase in the cost of production, the higher demand for quality wines, and the weakening of the euro against other currencies.

Despite the price increase, I believe that Spanish wines are still a good value for money. The quality of the wines has improved significantly in recent years, and there is now a wider range of wines available to choose from.

I encourage you to try some of the excellent wines that Spain has to offer. I am sure you will not be disappointed.

Data Reveals the Future of Wine Analysis

The data speaks for itself, and while it has always been important, it will soon become even more crucial. Artificial intelligence (AI) will enable us to conduct studies and comparisons that, when combined with the unique characteristics of each wine vintage, will provide us with information we could never have dreamed of before.

When I designed the database I use to create the guide, I spared no expense in gathering information, knowing that it is always necessary. The revolution that AI is bringing about was not yet known or even imagined, but believe me, this is just the beginning.

For example, by drawing on the historical data in the guide, which includes over 15,000 wines tasted and reviewed, we will be able to identify the typical aromas of the Tempranillo grape in Rioja and compare them to those of the same grape in Ribera del Duero. Or, we can use graphs to track how the quality of Ribera del Duero DO wines has evolved (if at all) and whether the wines' aromas or flavors have changed. A simpler piece of data to obtain is how the alcohol content of wine has been changing in Spain over the past 11 years and whether this change is the same in different production areas. I have extracted this data and I can assure you that there are some surprises.

I am working on changing the look and feel of the website www.wineup.info but not the programming or philosophy, and exploring all the possibilities it offers, taking into account the richness of the data and its verified origin. This means data on wines provided by wineries and tasting information provided by a single taster, myself, in a blind tasting under the same tasting conditions (temperature, glass, time...).

As for the wines, it can be seen that the average price of white wines is rising as is the score, while for young red wines this growth is much slower.

When we look at the best red wines, those over €20, the improvement is constant, both in price and score.

In short, wines in Spain continue to improve in quality and price, exceeding an average of €16 for the more than 1,100 wines tasted between May 2023 and March 2024.

In Memoriam: María Isabel Mijares García-Pelayo

I do not want to close this editorial without making a special mention and remembering the great lady of Spanish wine, Doña María Isabel Mijares García-Pelayo, who was recognized as "Person of the Year" by the Wine UP! guide in 2017.

She passed away on February 11th. We had met in a video conference a few days before, but the last time we were together was at the IWC Industry Awards 2023 gala, where she received a lifetime achievement award. At the end, we took this picture and Isabel reminded me that I (the Wine UP! guide) was the first to recognize her career.

Rest in peace, dear Isabel. You have left your mark on the wine industry and we will always remember you.

Stay Updated with Wine UP!

As always, I invite you to subscribe to the website www.wineup.es, where, in addition to news about wineries, I will be publishing articles on the best wines of the year and recommendations by variety, wine type, price... This is the dynamic part of the guide, supported by the website to make the information even easier to access.

Finally, you can follow the day-to-day activities of Wine UP! on social media. The most important ones are listed below.

All that remains is to thank you for downloading the guide and recommending it to friends and family.

Cheers!

THE WINES; RATINGS AND THE TASTING PROCESS:

This guide has been created using the ratings and comments of just one taster, Joaquin Parra Wine Up. This punctuation is only one of those that make the average you can find on the web www.wineup.info. This provides the opportunity to anyone who wants to create his or her own digital wine guide (by publishing the tastings on the web first)

The tasting sessions have taken place at the Wine Up Club Tasting Room in Tomelloso, Ciudad Real. They were carried out by teams of 3 to 5 tasters. Every wine was tasted blindly since it is the best way to do it avoiding the “temptation” to value friends better. It is also important to explain that no more than 100 wines were ever tasted the same day, breaks were taken every hour and the light conditions, room temperature and the wine temperature were optimal.

Schott Zwiesel Taste nº 1 and Riedel were the wineglasses chosen for the tasting sessions.

EXPERIENCE

Verum means the truth of the land, family and wine

We understand wine as a true reflection of our region and family history. The goal of our daily work is very clear; to strive for wine quality while remaining faithful to our principles, our land and our history. Some of our wines are more classical, others are more groundbreaking, but they all have character.

Verum means “truthful” in Latin. This is precisely what we seek to convey through our wines:

- The truth of our land. Recovering the best land and vineyards to make our wines.
- The truth of our family. Learning from our ancestors, who already cultivated this land.
- The truth of our wines. A true reflection of our region and family history.

Enjoy the wine experience A visit to Verum will certainly impress everybody. It is one of the few wineries in the world where you can visit a distillery and a winery at the same time.

The room with the stills, passionately taken care of for generations, allows us to show the mysteries involved in distillation. The greatest treasure of the winery is its ageing cellar. It has no artificial support and houses 8,000 square meters of galleries excavated in the calcareous rock of the subsoil of Tomelloso –the renowned “Tosca”. It adds special character to the wines resting in it.

Verum welcomes group visits, which include a tour around its modern facilities, a visit to the ageing cellar and wine tasting. The duration of a visit is approximately two hours, depending on the number of people making up the group.

Cuando comienzas a mirar el viñedo con otros ojos, descubres que cada suelo es único y que respetándolo y entendiéndolo es posible conectarlo con su entorno y crear vinos con identidad propia, que representan con singularidad su origen. Es entonces cuando tu mente elimina las barreras entre pasado y presente, permitiéndote redescubrir lo que ya conocías.

Garnet with ruby reflections, dense, medium layer. The nose is complex, with memories of red fruit with a touch of ripeness, caramel, vanilla and subtle toast. All accompanied by a balsamic character. On the palate it is more expressive than on the nose, very fresh, with tannin that provides meatiness. In the aftertaste, it brings back the memory of plum caramel, subtle coffee, aromatic herbs and toffee.

PRADA SELECCIÓN 2018

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2024

Points: 93,31

Cherry red with purple trim, medium layer, bright color. The nose is intense, with hints of red fruit with a point of ripeness, some toasted cereals, vanilla and cocoa. In the mouth it is sweet, fresh, silky. In the aftertaste, as in the nose, it brings back memories of fruit and spices with a balsamic touch.

BLAS MUÑOZ ESSENTIA 2020

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2024

Points: 93,38

Cherry red with cherry rim, middle layer and tears that stain the glass. On the nose, with a balsamic character, it brings back memories of strawberry with a point of maturity, some vanilla and an earthy background that provides complexity. In the mouth it is even more expressive than in the nose, very fresh, with noble, intense tannin. The aftertaste returns red fruit accompanied by sweet spices and balsamic.

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2024

Points: 93,00

Cherry red with cherry trim, medium layer. Intense on the nose, with hints of red fruit accompanied by subtle dairy and vanilla. In the mouth it is intense, fresh, with noble tannin. The aftertaste brings back the memory of red fruit with a point of ripeness, adding cocoa, black licorice and subtle aromatic herbs. Time will be good for it to round out and express its virtues even better (tasted in March 2024)

Intense lemon yellow with golden reflections. On the nose, marked aromas of caramel, toast, vanilla, braised pineapple and lemon caramel.
