Recommendations to fully enjoy this Digital Wine Guide

WINE UP!

Before starting to enjoy this Wine Guide I want to give you some useful tips so you can make the most of this document.

Nowadays there are many PDF readers available on the internet. Many of them will allow you to browse, but you can find others with no option to access the wines, wineries, PDOs and social network links… This guide contains thousands of them and you will find valuable information in each one.

I recommend you install ADOBE READER* (if you haven't already). It's FREE and reliable regardless of the device you are working on.
To download and install, click on the picture or on the link below the icon:

Director's Letter

Anniversary and Purpose

Joaquín Parra, Director de Wine Up Consulting

Onward and upward. The Wine Up! Guide reaches a new edition, consolidating a project that has never stopped evolving since its inception. But this year is no ordinary one: 2026 marks a special milestone, as it coincides with the twentieth anniversary of the founding of Wine Up Consulting. Two decades dedicated to connecting wine with the market, to translating the language of terroir into perceived value, and to building tools that help people understand what lies behind every bottle.

When Wine Up Consulting was founded in 2006, it responded to a clear need: Spanish wine had made remarkable strides in quality, but did not always find the right way to communicate it. Twenty years on, that mission remains as relevant as ever, even though the context has changed profoundly. Today we speak of digitalisation, artificial intelligence, global influence and an audience that demands authenticity, transparency and narrative. Along this journey, the guide has been — and continues to be — a cornerstone: a living archive that not only classifies wines, but builds knowledge.

The Guide as Knowledge and Database

Technological evolution now places us before a new frontier. The accumulation of data, year after year, opens the door to far more complex interpretations. It is no longer simply a matter of scoring a wine, but of identifying trends, styles, territories and market behaviours with unprecedented depth. In this sense, the guide is not merely a publication: it is a database with a forward-looking vocation.

At the same time, the format itself continues to prove its relevance. Compared to the traditional print model, the digital environment is not only more accessible, but also allows for constant updates, dynamic consultation and direct integration with platforms such as wineup.info and clm.wine. The reader ceases to be a passive recipient and becomes an active user of information.

Data and Market Trends

Looking at the data, the trajectory remains consistent. The 2026 edition continues the sustained growth in the number of wines and wineries, with a progressive improvement in average scores and, particularly significantly, a rise in average price that once again underscores the correlation between quality and market positioning. The previous edition already pointed to this trend: wines averaging above 91 points and a steady increase in the mid-price range across virtually all categories. This is not a cyclical phenomenon; it is structural.

Especially noteworthy is the performance of white wines, which continue to gain ground both in volume and in qualitative recognition. Spain is redefining its identity in this category, with ever-greater diversity and precision. Even so, certain challenges remain: rosés and sparkling wines have yet to achieve the positioning that their quality, in many cases, already warrants.

A Sector in Transformation

The current landscape demands a broader reflection. We find ourselves in a scenario of contracting global consumption, with a clear generational shift in habits and growing pressure in international markets. Added to this are economic uncertainty, potential trade tensions and an increasingly globalised competitive environment. Wine no longer competes only with other wines: it competes with other forms of consumption and other lifestyles.

Faced with this reality, the sector's response has been unambiguous: adaptation. Wineries are embracing more sustainable viticulture, more precise and less interventionist winemaking, and formats and narratives that connect with a different kind of consumer. In many cases, oak is stepping back from centre stage, giving way to wines that seek to express their origin with greater clarity. Amphorae, foudres, stainless steel and concrete now coexist as tools in the service of identity.

We can speak, without exaggeration, of a new chapter for Spanish wine: an evolution that does not reject its past, but reinterprets it through a contemporary lens. A second silent revolution, built from the vineyard, from winemaking honesty and from a deeper understanding of the market.

Communication: From Territory to Narrative

In this landscape, communication becomes more important than ever. Making great wines is not enough: it is essential to know how to tell their story, position them and champion them in a global context. That has been the cornerstone of Wine Up Consulting for twenty years and will continue to be so: building bridges between producer and consumer, between territory and narrative, between wine and its time.

Just a few weeks ago we closed another cycle with the presentation of the Best in Class awards. Even as we celebrated that moment, work on this 2026 edition was already under way. A continuous process that reflects, better than anything else, the very nature of wine: constant evolution, never static.

Quick Read

White wines continue to gain ground and recognition, both in the number of samples and in average scores.

The rise in average price is consolidating, in line with improved quality perception and market positioning.

Rosés and sparkling wines remain an unfinished chapter in terms of positioning, despite the quality already achieved by many references.

Total Renewal of www.wineup.info

Coinciding with this twentieth anniversary, I have undertaken a comprehensive renewal of the platform www.wineup.info, the historical archive bringing together every wine tasted throughout these years. The update is not merely aesthetic: it represents a substantial improvement in user experience, with more agile navigation, optimised display and a far more precise search system. Above all, however, it introduces a significant strategic shift by evolving towards a marketplace model, enabling direct access to purchase wines both from the wineries themselves and through other sales channels. It is a living tool, in constant development, conceived to accompany and complement the guide, reinforcing its usefulness and bringing wine directly and effectively to the consumer.

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge all the professionals who are part of this journey: winery owners, winemakers, sommeliers, distributors and communicators. And also those who, through international advocacy, help place Spanish wine where it rightfully belongs.

As always, I invite you to follow the living side of the guide at www.wineup.es and www.wineup.info, where I will continue publishing analyses, recommendations and trends. The guide is the starting point; the website, its natural extension.

Thank you for being there, for downloading this edition and for continuing to share wine, knowledge and culture.

Cheers.

INTRODUCTION

The WINE UP! Wine and Spirits Guide was the first in Spain to be published in digital format, back in 2013. Since then, it has surpassed one million downloads, and the wines featured in its pages have accumulated tens of millions of views through www.wineup.info.

You now hold in your hands the 27th edition of the guide, the 13th in annual format. Over time, we have refined its visual identity to offer a clean, accessible and easy-to-navigate design.

In today's world, virtually everyone has a smartphone or tablet. For this reason, a digital guide makes more sense than ever. Even without an internet connection, it allows you to browse its contents at any time, bringing producers and consumers closer together in a more direct and flexible way. With a single click you can access a winery's social media, send an email, or even make a purchase, all without leaving the guide or opening a browser.

My journey in the wine industry began in 1998. I have experienced wine from multiple perspectives — administrative, technical, commercial — and in recent years, through Wine Up Consulting, from the angle of consultancy, communications and the tasting of thousands of wines. Many of these tastings have been published in what has been my most ambitious digital project: the first online tasting panel in Spain, www.wineup.info, which this April reaches 18 years of uninterrupted activity, now completely renewed.

This guide is born precisely from that experience: from countless tasting sessions, from participation as a judge in international competitions and, of course, from the ongoing work at wineup.info. All the wines and data featured in the guide come from this platform. Thanks to its digital design and structure, it is possible to compile, organise and adapt all information according to the specific needs of each edition. Behind every publication lies a rigorous process of data selection and management. We sincerely hope the result meets your expectations.

The aim of this guide is clear: to bring wine closer to the consumer, both end consumer and professional, offering direct information on each wine, its winery and, above all, an objective assessment based on the three classic phases of tasting — visual, olfactory and gustatory — evaluated with the impartiality that blind tasting provides.

Since these are blind tastings conducted across 13 parameters, our scores include decimal points. The scoring system is similar to that used in international competitions. And if the method allows for decimals, why dispense with them? I have always maintained that a wine scoring 91.10 points is not the same as one scoring 91.90.

It is also important to understand how a score is constructed. The visual phase provides relevant information, the nose defines the identity of the wine and anticipates its behaviour on the palate, and it is in the gustatory phase that the wine confirms — or fails to confirm — what it promised.

We hope you find this guide useful. And of course, I would be delighted to receive any comments or suggestions.

Joaquín Parra Wine Up

Director – Wine Up! Guide

WINES, SCORES AND TASTING METHODOLOGY:

All the data featured in this guide comes from the assessments of a single taster: Joaquín Parra Wine Up. Each published score also forms part of the average scoring system displayed on the website www.wineup.info

This open model allows any user who publishes their own tastings on the platform to eventually develop and publish their own digital guide.

All tastings were conducted at the God Save The Wine tasting room in Tomelloso. Every wine has been evaluated blind, ensuring maximum impartiality and eliminating any external influence. It is also worth noting that no more than 60 wines were tasted per session, with breaks every hour and under optimal conditions of lighting, ambient temperature and wine service.

The glasses used were Riedel and Schott Zwiesel Taste Nº1, both internationally recognised for their suitability in professional tasting.

Although the guide is built primarily on the assessments of its editor, Joaquín Parra Wine Up, during 2024 and 2025 other tasters participated in various sessions, contributing their own scores and comments.

You can view the complete historical record of wines tasted at: www.wineup.info

METHODOLOGY:

Each wine is evaluated across thirteen distinct parameters, scored from 0 to 100: three corresponding to the visual phase, four to the olfactory phase and six to the gustatory phase. The final score is the average of the thirteen parameters, while the average of each group determines the phase score. This structure reflects the three essential dimensions of wine analysis: what we see in the glass, what we perceive through the nose, and what we experience on the palate. Each phase builds upon the previous one, offering a progressive and coherent reading of the wine that goes far beyond a simple overall impression. Visual assessment captures fluidity, clarity and colour; the olfactory phase examines frankness, intensity, fruitiness and harmony; and the gustatory phase, the most complex, evaluates attack, cleanliness, intensity, body, harmony and persistence.

This method was developed in 2008 and implemented on wineup.info. It introduced the use of decimal points in wine scoring in Spain, initially questioned but subsequently adopted. It allows for a more precise and detailed analysis, inspired by the tasting sheets used in international competitions. The inclusion of decimals is not a mere stylistic choice: it is a direct consequence of averaging thirteen individual scores, each of which may vary by fractions of a point. This mathematical rigour makes it possible to distinguish, for example, between a wine that scores 91.10 and one that scores 91.90, a difference that, while subtle in numerical terms, reflects meaningful distinctions in quality and character. Over more than fifteen years of application, this methodology has proven its consistency and has become a reference framework for professional tasting in Spain.

METHODOLOGY OF

WINE TASTING

THE WINE UP GUIDE

DIRECTED BY JOAQUÍN PARRA

A rigorous and sensory method to understand and evaluate wine through three phases: sight, nose and mouth.

1 VISUAL PHASE

FLUIDITY

Assesses the behaviour of the wine in the glass. A high score indicates consistency appropriate to its type (red, white, rosé) and a pleasant sense of body.

CLARITY

Refers to visual transparency. A clean wine is brillant, clear and free of visual faults.

COLOUR

Evaluates the colour and its reflections. A high score indicates an attractive colour that is representative of its variety and style. Vibrancy, even in aged wines, is considered very positively.

2 OLFACTORY PHASE

FRANKNESS

Measures aromatic cleanliness and authenticity. A frank wine displays well-defined aromas, free of deviations or faults.

INTENSITY

Assesses aromatic power. An intense wine shows clear, perceptible aromas from the very first moment.

FRUITINESS

Analyses the presence and quality of fruit aromas, in keeping with the variety and the evolution of the wine.

HARMONY

Evaluates the balance of the overall aromatic profile. A harmonious wine integrates fruit, flowers, spices, minerality or ageing notes without any single element dominating the rest.

3 GUSTATORY PHASE

ATTACK

The first sensation on the palate. A good attack is pleasant, structured and balanced.

CLEANLINESS

Absence of gustatory faults. A clean wine confirms what was perceived on the nose and leaves a pleasant sensation.

INTENSITY

The equivalent of the olfactory phase on the palate. An intense wine presents well-defined, persistent flavours.

BODY

Evaluates structure. A full-bodied wine feels broad and enveloping. In reds, the tannins should be well integrated; or sparkling wines, the bubble should be fine and elegant.

HARMONY

Balance between acidity, tannin, alcohol and sweetness. A harmonious wine presents no imbalances or rough edges.

PERSISTENCE

The duration of the aftertaste. Great wines are distinguished by a long, complex and well-defined finish.

Each phase is scored from 0 to 10 points. The total of the three phases (max. 100 points) allows obtaining a complete and objective vision of the quality of the wine.

0-100 points

PERSON OF THE YEAR 2026

IN THE WINE INDUSTRY

QUIM VILA

As director of the Wine Up Guide and a committed observer of the evolution of wine in Spain and beyond, few careers have struck me as more deserving of recognition than that of Quim Vila. It is therefore my honour this year to distinguish him as Person of the Year, in recognition of a professional life marked by vision, consistency, intellectual generosity and a transformative impact on the way Spain understands, distributes, communicates and consumes wine.

Quim Vila was not born with wine in hand, but from a very young age he understood that wine was the axis around which something far greater than a business could be built. Born in Barcelona, he belongs to the third generation of a family that in 1932 opened a small grocery shop in the Born neighbourhood. He lost his father at the age of twelve, and from the age of eighteen balanced work in the shop with studies in Architecture. He completed four years of the degree, needing only a few more subjects to graduate, and made a decision that in retrospect makes perfect sense: to leave the formal programme and build a different kind of architecture, this one made of wines, relationships, territories and culture. This is not an idle metaphor: the sensitivity to complex systems, the design of spaces and the articulation of structures that his incomplete training instilled in him permeates everything Quim Vila has done since.

The decisive business turning point came in 1993, when he met Siscu Martí, owner of the historic estate Ca N'Estruc, and they sealed a partnership that remains the backbone of the company to this day. This is no minor detail: the story of Vila Viniteca is not that of a solitary genius, but of a well-constructed alliance in which Vila takes on the commercial side, communications and advocacy, while Martí handles logistics, finance and production. On 1 March 1994 they opened the new specialist shop on Carrer Agullers in Barcelona. That day, without anyone knowing it at the time, the most influential wine distributor in Spain was born.

In just three years, in 1997, Vila Viniteca became the first Spanish wine company to have a website. It was a symbolic gesture, but also a statement of principle about where the company would stand in relation to the future. From the year 2000 onwards, Vila systematically and pedagogically introduced to Spain the en primeur sales model, beginning with Álvaro Palacios's L'Ermita and subsequently extending it to Pingus, Artadi, Numanthia, Alión, Pago de Carraovejas and dozens of wineries that today trade on the international market at the level of Europe's greatest châteaux. It was an act of unprecedented confidence in Spanish wine, and also a structural transformation of the market: for the first time, domestic producers could finance their next vintage with money advanced by their buyers, and Spanish collectors began to understand fine wine as an investment asset as worthy as those of Bordeaux or Burgundy.

But Quim Vila was not content merely to distribute what others made. In 1998 he founded Uvas Felices, a shared production platform conceived along the lines of the great Burgundy négociants but radically updated for the Spanish terroir. Under that umbrella, and always in the format of creative partnerships with top-tier winemakers — Miguel Ángel de Gregorio in Rioja, Fernando García and Dani Landi in Gredos, Eulogio Pomares in Rías Baixas, Juan Carlos Vizcarra in Ribera del Duero, the Castaño family in Yecla, among many others — Vila Viniteca ceased to be merely a channel for bringing wines to market and became also their origin. Uvas Felices today operates across ten designations of origin and exports to more than forty countries. What in 1998 appeared to be a niche venture is today an internationally recognised model and a reference for how a distributor can act as an incubator of viticultural talent without sacrificing the identity of those who make the wines.

Quim Vila's impact transcends the business world and extends into culture. Since 2000 he has organised La Música del Vi, a biennial gathering at the Llotja de Mar in Barcelona that draws more than three thousand professionals from around the world and involves nearly two hundred and thirty wineries. In 2007 he created the Vila Viniteca Blind Tasting Pairs Competition, today one of the most demanding and best-endowed blind tasting contests on the international wine scene: its eighteenth edition, held in 2026, brought together one hundred and twenty-four elite pairs, with an attendance of fifteen hundred professionals and a prize pool of forty thousand euros. In 2017 he established his own tasting panel of fifteen professionals, trained over two years to research sensory perception and bring empirical rigour to the company's purchasing decisions. And since the 1990s, his annual catalogue has been illustrated by some of Spain's most significant visual artists — Miquel Barceló, Jaume Plensa, Antonio López, Ferran García Sevilla — turning a commercial document into a collectible object of value in its own right. The ADG-FAD recognised this with the Premio Laus Empresas y Entidades 2024, certifying something that enthusiasts already knew: that Vila Viniteca has made design as important a language as wine itself.

To all of this must be added a dimension that few merchants in any sector have taken seriously: epistemology. His collaboration with elBullifoundation on the Sapiens del Vino project, within the ambitious encyclopaedic framework of Ferran Adrià's Bullipedia, is not an intellectual indulgence but the most coherent expression of his conviction that wine deserves the same theoretical depth and taxonomic rigour as any other field of human knowledge. The result, structured across several volumes and conceived with a multidisciplinary team spanning scientific researchers to philosophers of aesthetics, addresses questions that conventional criticism has rarely dared to ask aloud: what exactly is wine in the context of the gastronomic experience? Why does humanity consume it ritually? Is it a natural product or a cultural construct? These are questions that Quim Vila has spent his entire career answering through actions, and that are now set down in writing for the generations to come.

The institutional recognition he has accumulated throughout his career traces the same figure from different angles. The Royal Academy of Gastronomy awarded him the National Prize as Professional of the Year 2007; the Barcelona City Council granted him the Premi Ciutat de Barcelona de Gastronomia in 2012; the French Republic has honoured him with the Médaille du Mérite Agricole at both Chevalier and Officier grade, one of the most demanding distinctions the French State confers on foreign figures who have made a decisive contribution to the projection of its agri-food culture in the world.

Quim Vila represents something the wine world needs and that is in short supply: the conviction that selling well is not incompatible with thinking well, designing well, educating well and producing well. Over three decades he has built an ecosystem in which the shop, the distribution network, the competition, the fair, the illustrated catalogue, the production platform, the encyclopaedic project and academic training are not parallel activities but parts of a single argument. That argument states that wine is culture, that culture demands rigour, and that rigour is compatible with pleasure and with business.

For all of this, and because his career has made a decisive contribution to raising the prestige of Spanish wine and those who make it in the eyes of the world, I am proud to recognise his work by naming him Person of the Year in the Wine Up Guide 2026.

A name that joins those of other great figures of wine, both national and international:

OENOTURISM

The wineries are already aware of the importance of opening their doors to wine tourists, also known in Spanish as wine travelers.

This new section of the Wine Up Wine Guide ©, which will gradually grows, aims to show the best of wine tourism in Spain, the best wineries to visit. Furthermore it intends to provide information for those who seek after experiences to enjoy and learn, getting to know the cultural, gastronomic and wine tourism heritage of Spain.

To whet your appetite, here I provide the links to some of the many ‘unique wineries’ © in Spain

Bodegas Coronado, Located in La Alberca de Záncara-Cuenca, it was founded from a family idea in 2002. We work with our own vineyards, being a guarantee of quality for our wines. We make and bottle white and red wines, young and aged, all single-varietal, that is, 100% of the same variety, so each type of wine expresses its potential in every sense.

During our visits we want to convey the feeling and honesty that we put into all our wines, our aging room is the most special and authentic area of Bodegas Coronado, which is where we carry out the wine tasting.

ENJOY THE WINE EXPERIENCE

Verum means the truth of the land, family and wine

We understand wine as a true reflection of our region and family history. The goal of our daily work is very clear; to strive for wine quality while remaining faithful to our principles, our land and our history. Some of our wines are more classical, others are more groundbreaking, but they all have character.
Verum means "truthful" in Latin. This is precisely what we seek to convey through our wines:

- The truth of our land. Recovering the best land and vineyards to make our wines.
- The truth of our family. Learning from our ancestors, who already cultivated this land.
- The truth of our wines. A true reflection of our region and family history.

Enjoy the wine experience A visit to Verum will certainly impress everybody. It is one of the few wineries in the world where you can visit a distillery and a winery at the same time.

The room with the stills, passionately taken care of for generations, allows us to show the mysteries involved in distillation. The greatest treasure of the winery is its ageing cellar. It has no artificial support and houses 8,000 square meters of galleries excavated in the calcareous rock of the subsoil of Tomelloso –the renowned "Tosca". It adds special character to the wines resting in it.

Verum welcomes group visits, which include a tour around its modern facilities, a visit to the ageing cellar and wine tasting. The duration of a visit is approximately two hours, depending on the number of people making up the group.

WINE UP!
TWENTY YEARS OF WINE, TERROIR AND COMMUNICATION

TWENTY YEARS OF WINE, TERROIR AND COMMUNICATION

Wine Up Consulting, 2006–2026

There are decisions that can only be made when you truly understand what lies on the other side. Mine came in 2006, after more than eight years working within the sector: as head of administration, as commercial director, and as general manager in wineries and cooperatives across Castilla-La Mancha. I understood the pressures of the balance sheet, the bottlenecks of distribution, and the difficulty of translating a wine's quality into a credible commercial narrative.

When I decided to venture out on my own, I did not do so from the distance of an external consultant observing the industry with analytical detachment. I did it from within, carrying both the knowledge and the accumulated frustration. That is how Wine Up Consulting was born: the first firm based in Castilla-La Mancha exclusively specialized in wine marketing, communication and commercial auditing—and today, in 2026, one of the longest-established companies in the sector in Spain.

The initial diagnosis was clear. Wineries in the region—and, more broadly, across Spain—had invested heavily in winemaking technology throughout the 1990s and, especially, in the early 2000s, with the arrival of subsidies under the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP). Stainless steel tanks, temperature control systems, clonal selection in the vineyard, barrels of new French oak barrels.

Joaquín Parra, 1999

Wine quality had improved substantially. Yet the ability to communicate that improvement had not progressed at the same pace. Many companies were producing wines of unquestionable quality but lacked the language to sell them, the narrative to give them value, and the strategy to position them within the market segments they truly deserved.

Wine Up Consulting was created precisely to provide that missing layer: the tools to ensure that the intrinsic quality of the wine is translated into perceived value.

From the outset, I committed to digitalisation as a strategic driver, not merely as a secondary channel. In 2008, just two years after launching the project, I created ecatas.com, now wineup.info, Spain's first online and interactive wine tasting panel.

The platform combined supervised professional evaluations with tasting notes from amateur consumers, all under a modulation system that ensured data reliability. It was a radically innovative approach for its time: to democratise wine criticism, to break the monopoly of the solitary expert, and to build a body of reviews with global reach.

The path toward digital recommendation and influence was mapped out years in advance of the rating platforms that are now widely known.

Wine Up Tour, more than 450 tastings and wine pairing dinners across Spain

In 2010 came what is perhaps the most enduring conceptual contribution of these twenty years to the lexicon of Spanish wine marketing: reverse wine tourism. The reasoning was compelling in its simplicity. Traditional wine tourism requires the consumer to travel to the winery. For singular estates located inland, in rural areas, this model entails an almost insurmountable barrier to entry: distance, limited access, and a lack of nearby tourism infrastructure.

The solution was not to wait for the consumer to arrive, but to bring the winery to them. This is how the Wine Up Tour with Bodegas Singulares & Vinos de Autor was born: educational tastings and wine pairing dinners held in leading restaurants and specialised wine shops in the main cities across Spain, where attendees experienced a three-hour immersion into the history, geology, viticulture and personality of up to ten great author-driven wines.

These were not cold commercial presentations. They were carefully designed educational evenings, aimed at helping consumers understand and appreciate the price, origin and quality of what was in their glass. Over the course of its various editions, the Wine Up Tour delivered more than 450 events and welcomed over 16,000 attendees, establishing itself as a unique initiative within the Spanish wine landscape.

The birth of the WINE UP! Guide to Wines, Spirits & Vermouth

In June 2013 came another milestone of which I am particularly proud: the launch of the WINE UP! Guide to Wines, Spirits & Vermouth, a pioneer in its conception as a free downloadable digital tool, published annually and in a bilingual Spanish-English format.

Its blind tasting methodology rigorously evaluates the three phases of sensory analysis, visual, olfactory and gustatory, with equal weighting. From the very first edition, I established a publication threshold of 85 points: any wine featured in the guide has surpassed a clearly above-average organoleptic standard within the market.

Since then, more than 15,000 wines have been published, all available on wineup.info. This is complemented by a directory of over 3,250 wineries and more than 1,000,000 cumulative downloads since its inception.

Recognition from across the wine sector

In 2023, the IWC Industry Awards Spain recognised it as the Best Wine Guide in Spain. It is the most significant external and independent endorsement that a publication of this nature can receive in the Spanish market.

That same year, 2023, marked the highest concentration of institutional recognition in the entire history of the project. In addition to the IWC award, there was the Tastevin de Cristal from the Unión de Asociaciones Españolas de Sumilleres, the highest distinction awarded by the national sommelier community to a wine taster, and the Premio Nacional de Periodismo

Virgen de las Viñas, endowed with €5,000, for my article “Vendimia ya no huele a mosto” (“Harvest No Longer Smells of Must”), a reflection on the industrial transformation of viticulture in La Mancha.

It demonstrated something that the trajectory of Wine Up had already suggested for years: that behind the marketing consultant and the rigorous taster, there is also a writer capable of articulating, with literary precision, the collective memory of a territory. These recognitions completed a coherent and transversal arc: the Medalla de Oro al Mérito por la Difusión de la Cultura Vitivinícola from the Federación Española de Asociaciones de Enólogos in 2016, the Entrepreneurial Merit Award from ADES Castilla-La Mancha in 2017, the Communicator of the Year distinction from the Colegio Oficial de Enología de Castilla-La Mancha in 2019, and Taster of the Year by ASOCAVISO in 2024.

On the threshold of this twentieth anniversary, the most recent evolution of Wine Up Consulting points decisively toward territorial consolidation. The Castilla-La Mancha Wine Guide, launched at the end of 2025 alongside the portal clm.wine, brings together more than 400 wines evaluated under the same methodology as the national guide, turning the region into a subject of specific and rigorous oenological study, beyond the volume-driven clichés that for decades weighed on its external image.

The second edition of the 100 Essential Wines of Castilla-La Mancha tasting, held in January 2026 with the support of the Tomelloso City Council and the Provincial Council of Ciudad Real, gathered 62 wineries and featured the active participation of Beth Willard, co-chair of the Decanter World Wine Awards and collaborator with Tim Atkin. Her analysis was published on the global platform of the Master of Wine, bringing the region’s quality wines into the English-speaking circuits of recommendation with the highest possible level of credibility.

Twenty years after that beginning in Tomelloso, the project remains the same at its core: a bridge between the quality of wine and those who drink it, between the singular winery and the international prescriber, between the memory of terroir and the language of the global market. I have made mistakes, taken decisions I would change, and learned from every stage of the Wine Up Tour, from every guide published, and from every winery that placed its trust in Wine Up.

But there is one thing I would not change at all: the conviction that communicating wine, when done with rigour, with real knowledge and with a genuine respect for place, is a form of cultural service as legitimate as any other. That is what Wine Up Consulting has sought to be for two decades. And what it will continue to be.

HIGH-END SPARKLING WINE IN SPAIN: A TERRITORY IN THE MAKING WITH A NUMBER OF STANDOUT REFERENCES

HIGH-END SPARKLING WINE IN SPAIN: A TERRITORY IN THE MAKING WITH A NUMBER OF STANDOUT REFERENCES

Text: Joaquín Parra Wine UP! | Photography: Bodegas Hispano Suizas

Since the very first edition of the WINE UP! Guide, I have had the opportunity to closely follow the trajectory of Bodegas Hispano Suizas. I have no doubt that the work of Pablo Ossorio and Rafa Navarro has positioned this Valencian winery at the pinnacle of high-end Spanish sparkling wine. And they have done so with a commitment that few have dared to replicate: magnum as the only possible format for their most ambitious cuvée, Tantum Ergo Exclusive.

The sparkling wine industry: volume vs exclusivity

Spain has a sparkling wine industry of enormous scale, yet its high-end segment remains small and fragmented when compared to Champagne or Italy's Franciacorta. Cava has, for decades, been the country's flagship sparkling wine, but its long-standing association with affordability and mass consumption has weighed on its credibility in the premium segment.

The Reserva de la Familia, Gran Añada and Cava de Paraje Calificado categories have undeniably pushed quality upwards. Producers such as Gramona, Recaredo, Agustí Torelló or Bodegas Hispano Suizas (Requena) have spent years demonstrating that the Spanish traditional method can achieve a level of complexity comparable to that of the great Champagnes. However, the leap into true luxury, wines with real ageing potential, capable of standing alongside the finest bottles from Épernay or Reims, has yet to fully consolidate. Here, the battle is being fought winery by winery.

Rafa Navarro

Part of the sector's response came in 2019 with the creation of Corpinnat. A group of historic producers from the Penedès, including Gramona, Recaredo, Torelló and Nadal, among others, chose to leave the Cava and establish their own category with stricter rules: 100% estate-grown grapes, certified organic viticulture, exclusive origin within inland Penedès municipalities, and significantly longer ageing requirements than those of Cava. The message was clear: there is a Spanish sparkling wine that does not wish to be associated with the two-euro supermarket shelf. That said, in my view, such a move was not strictly necessary; these brands are already sufficiently recognised, regardless of the back label they carry.

Pablo Ossorio, enólogo

Beyond the Penedès, other producers are quietly following a similar path. Some, by virtue of their geographical rights, remain within the Cava, while others operate under different appellations, Vino de la Tierra classifications, or even as table wines. Yet, as the saying goes, the habit does not make the monk: beyond the denomination, what ultimately matters is the quality they are able to bring to market. One of the reasons behind the creation of Corpinnat was the need to compete under a single designation where €3 and €60 sparkling wines coexisted, a situation that, in reality, is common to almost every appellation in the world without diminishing the prestige of those positioned in the high-end and premium segments.

I will always defend the brand and the producer above the appellation label. And here, when we speak of sparkling wines, there is a leading winery at national level: Bodegas Hispano Suizas, whose trajectory places it among the most outstanding producers of sparkling wines in Spain, both in whites and rosés.

When speaking about the premium segment in sparkling wines, there is one variable that the Spanish industry has scarcely explored: the magnum format. In Champagne, magnum is the benchmark for great age-worthy wines. The favourable ratio between volume and surface area in contact with the closure slows down evolution, reduces oxidation and allows complexity to develop more gradually. For a sparkling wine intended to age for ten, twelve or fifteen years, it is technically the most suitable bottle format.

The fact that in Spain this has rarely been applied in a systematic way says a great deal about the sector's priorities. Yet, once again, it is worth highlighting Bodegas Hispano Suizas, which as early as 2008 (the first vintage I tasted) released Tantum Ergo Exclusive, a limited edition marketed exclusively in magnum format and with a minimum of ten years ageing on lees.

Within this context, education emerges as the most solid path for Spanish sparkling wines to gain the recognition they deserve. With this conviction, the "Sparkling Wine Master by Tantum Ergo" competition was created, an initiative by Bodegas Hispano Suizas that goes far beyond a contest: it represents a genuine commitment to raising the technical level of front-of-house professionals, a key link in the chain between wine and consumer. By dignifying both service and discourse around sparkling wine, the winery invests in wine culture in a way that extends beyond brand benefit, ultimately supporting all producers who share the same philosophy of quality.

Bodegas Hispano Suizas: innovation rooted in the vineyard

Bodegas Hispano Suizas was founded in 2006 in Requena (Utiel-Requena, Valencia) with an idea that set it apart from the outset: to produce wines of the highest quality in a region traditionally associated with volume and the Bobal grape, while committing to varieties such as Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Albariño. The results have more than validated the project.

The partnership between Rafa Navarro, responsible for the vineyard, and Pablo Ossorio, leading the winemaking, is the cornerstone of its success. Navarro has ensured that the vineyards of Requena, located at over 700 metres above sea level, with cool nights that preserve the natural acidity of the grapes, yield fruit of a quality comparable to that of the finest wine regions in Europe. Ossorio, in turn, has transformed that fruit into wines that today stand as benchmarks both nationally and internationally.

Pablo Ossorio was recognised in 2024 as Best Spanish Winemaker by the FECOES, an award that acknowledges his ability to elevate every variety he works with—Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Bobal, Sauvignon Blanc and Albariño—to its highest expression.

The winery operates under Utiel-Requena, Valencia and Cava. Its sparkling wines within the Tantum Ergo range compete in the premium segment without relying on the umbrella of any particular designation. The results support that independence: year after year, Tantum Ergo Exclusive ranks as the top cava in the WINE UP! Guide, and it is equally recognised by other guides such as ADN (Verema), Akata, and by the British critic and Master of Wine Tim Atkin.

The Tantum Ergo range: sparkling wines for those who know what they are looking for The winery's sparkling line is named Tantum Ergo and comprises four traditional method wines produced from estate vineyards in Requena. The style is consistent across the range: high acidity, fine mousse, and aromatic complexity defined by precision and finesse. All four are Brut Nature, and in the production process the base wine undergoes its first fermentation in new 400-litre oak barrels.

Tantum Ergo Chardonnay & Pinot Noir represents the entry point to the range. With a minimum of 30 months ageing on lees, it already displays a level of finesse and elegance rarely found in Spain.

Tantum Ergo Rosé Pinot Noir, consistently the top rosé cava in Spain, further showcases the winery's mastery in crafting rosé wines, also with 30 months on lees.

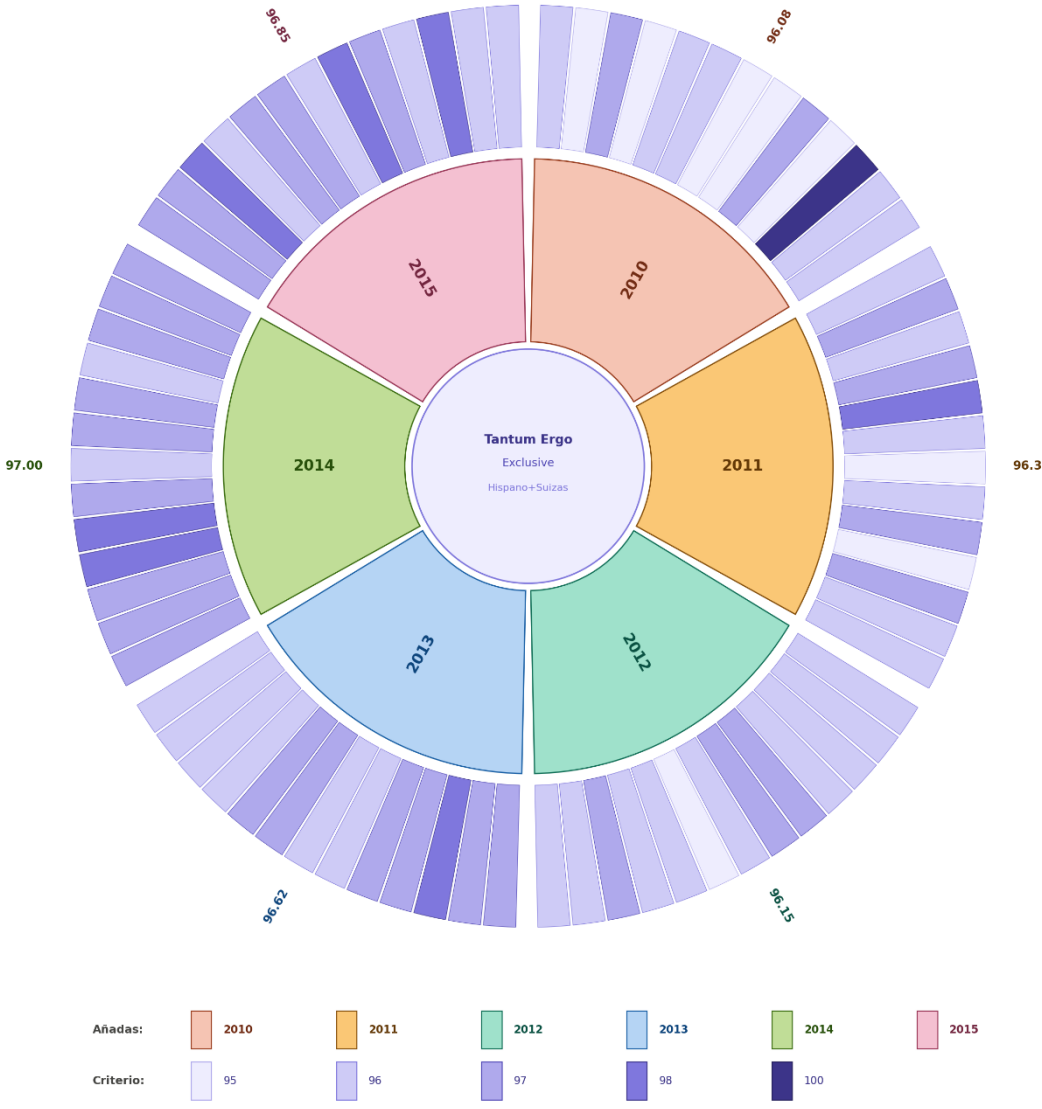

Tantum Ergo Vintage, likewise produced from Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, extends its ageing to a minimum of 54 months, resulting in a more complex sparkling wine positioned within the sphere of Spain's most exclusive cuvées, with a market price around €50 per bottle.

At the pinnacle of the range stands Tantum Ergo Exclusive. Like the other white sparkling wines, it is crafted from Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, but distinguishes itself through a minimum ageing of 118 months and, in a move that is virtually unique in Spain, it is released exclusively in magnum format. A decision that speaks volumes about the vision of its creators.

Few commitments in Spanish sparkling wine are as radical as this one. And the results of the vertical tasting presented below provide the most compelling justification.

Wine Up! Score	96,08	96,31	96,15	96,62	97,00	96,85

What the numbers say

The scores from this vertical range between 96.08 and 97.00, less than a single point separating the lowest from the highest vintage. That, without doubt, is extraordinary. Climatic conditions in Requena vary from year to year, as in any other wine region in Spain. That the 2013 vintage, a challenging year across much of the country, reaches 96.62 points, or that 2014 achieves 97.00, speaks of vineyard and cellar work that leaves no room for chance.

The profile that emerges from the tasting is consistent and unmistakable: fine pastry, butter, baked apple, nuts and subtle caramelisation. It is not the profile of a Champagne from the Côte des Blancs, nor that of a Corpinnat from the Penedès. It is a distinctive identity, built from the same vineyards and the same hands over more than a decade. That is what separates a great wine from one that is merely good.

It is also essential to highlight the decision to maintain magnum as the only format. This is not marketing. Ten, eleven, twelve years after harvest, these wines do not merely hold, they improve. The mousse becomes finer, the aromatic profile gains in complexity, and the acidity integrates and extends the finish. It is a practical demonstration that, for age-worthy sparkling wine, magnum is the right tool.

Tantum Ergo Exclusive has been ranked as the top cava in the WINE UP! Guide for three consecutive years. This six-vintage vertical tasting is, quite simply, the explanation why.

LASERNA — LAGUARDIA

RIOJA ALAVESA

BODEGAS VILLOTA: THE MEMORY OF THE MEANDER AND THE FUTURE OF VITICULTURE IN RIOJA ALAVESA

BODEGA VILLOTA: THE MEMORY OF THE MEANDER AND THE FUTURE OF THE VINEYARD IN RIOJA ALAVESA

Text and photography: Joaquín Parra Wine UP!

Talking about Laserna, a hamlet of Laguardia, in Rioja Alavesa without mentioning the Ebro is impossible. The river draws a meander here that has shaped soils, microclimates and, for almost a century, the viticultural destiny of the Pérez-Villota family.

On the "San Rafael estate", where Ricardo Pérez Pérez settled upon returning from Chile in the 1930s, begins the story of a project that knows no shortcuts.

VILLOTA IS NOT A NEW WINERY. IT IS A RECOVERED WINERY.

Until 2013, the family was an essential part of Viñedos del Contino, a project founded in 1973 in which their vineyards played a decisive role from day one.

When they decide to take the reins alone, they invent nothing: they resume what was always theirs.

WHAT REALLY MATTERS IN THE VINEYARD

Facilities and technical resources play their part. They may take the form of a stately winery or a functional building where all the necessary conditions for producing good wine are met, and there are many. But without the vineyard, grapes can always be purchased, suppliers selected; it is ultimately a matter of price and intent. The result, however, will always be someone else's.

This is what defines Bodegas Villota: nearly one hundred hectares in one of the most historically significant viticultural settings within the Rioja Alavesa, with vines that in some cases date back to the very foundation of the estate.

The Villota estate in San Rafael offers something few Rioja properties can claim: genuine heterogeneity within less than a kilometre. From the riverside woodland along the Ebro River to the drier, higher slopes, the vineyard changes character every hundred metres. Calcareous clays, gravel and alluvial soils; three natural terraces that yield distinct profiles in each parcel. The proximity of the river acts as a thermal regulator, and it shows: freshness and ripeness coexist without strain.

Tempranillo, Graciano, Mazuelo and Garnacha for the reds; Garnacha Blanca, Tempranillo Blanco and Malvasía Riojana for the whites. It is an exceptional varietal heritage, farmed without herbicides, with mechanical soil work and constant observation. No protocol can replace decades spent walking among these vines.

"Walking through the vineyard, feeling the soil underfoot, touching the clusters as they form. Comparing the same variety across different parts of the estate. That is Villota."

FROM VIÑEDOS DEL CONTINO TO THEIR OWN PROJECT

Carmen Pérez Garrigues

2014 is not only the birth date of Villota, it marks its emancipation. Carmen Pérez Garrigues, fourth generation, took the reins, and later Jesús Madrazo assumed responsibility for the winemaking. There is no rupture, only continuity. The family had cultivated these vineyards long before that date; what changed is that from then on, both decisions and wines became entirely their own.

In the winery, the guiding principle is minimal intervention. Fermentations take place in stainless steel, wooden vats and concrete, while ageing combines French oak with restrained use of new barrels and concrete tanks. Wood does not dominate; it refines. The result is wines of fine texture, with well-integrated acidity and, above all, a direct expression of the vineyard.

GRACIANO, MAZUELO AND GARNACHA: VARIETIES THAT TIME HAS PROVEN RIGHT

Perhaps the most compelling aspect of Villota, particularly for those who taste regularly, is the work with varieties that for decades were treated merely as blending grapes. Graciano, Mazuelo and Garnacha are given full status here, and not just recently.

The Garnacha comes from the Pajera parcel, planted in 1979 on the highest terrace of the estate, at the foot of Cerro de la Mesa: shallow calcareous soil, surrounded by kermes oak scrub. A rugged environment that challenges the variety and draws out precisely what makes it compelling: precise red fruit, tart strawberry, rose petals and an acidity that tightens the wine without hardening it.

Production is extremely limited; the 2021 vintage amounted to just 2,470 bottles. The winemaking seeks above all to preserve varietal identity: fermentation in tank, gentle extraction, and part of the must bled off and aged in 500-litre French oak barrels for six months. The WINE UP! Guide awarded Villota Garnacha 2022 a Grand Gold medal and 93 points.

Graciano and Mazuelo follow a different path, more vertical and structured. Villota Graciano 2022 shows black fruit, balsamic notes and Mediterranean scrub, with a seductive and deep palate rarely found in this variety at such a level. Villota Mazuelo 2022 displays its characteristic violet rim, an intense nose of black fruit with spicy nuances, and a palate marked by an acidity that invites you to keep drinking.

Both were named “Spanish Monovarietal Ambassador” for their respective varieties in the WINE UP! Guide 2025, receiving a Grand Gold medal. This is no minor distinction: it means they are considered the finest single-varietal Graciano and Mazuelo wines in Spain according to the guide. In addition, that same year Villota was recognised as Winery of the Year 2025.

They bring structural acidity and freshness, two qualities that, in the current climatic context, are beyond debate, while also revealing nuances of terroir that Tempranillo alone does not always express. These are wines that justify the journey on their own.

VIÑA GENA AND LAS ANCHAS: WHEN THE PARCEL TAKES THE LEAD

Some vineyards within the estate carry their own name, and rightly so. Viña Gena comes from the oldest parcel at San Rafael, planted in 1930 on the first terrace, between the Ebro River and a hillside of holm oak forest. Pure Tempranillo, low yields, and enough time for the vines to have learned exactly what lies beneath them. It is the first wine from Bodegas Villota to be officially classified as a Viñedo Singular, and its name pays tribute to Doña Genara Villota, the family matriarch. The scores in the WINE UP! Guide confirm this vintage after vintage: 2018 reached 95.31 points; 2021, 93.46; and 2023, 93.38.

Las Anchas follows, sourced from different parcels within the estate, Las Anchas, Lentisco and Central, with an average vine age of 77 years, and a blend of 95% Tempranillo and 5% Graciano that already speaks volumes about the winery's philosophy. It undergoes 22 months ageing in new French oak barrels and more than a year of bottle maturation. The result is a deeply aromatic wine, with clear mineral character and a tension on the palate that the parcels along the Ebro meander naturally provide. The 2021 vintage achieved 94.46 points in the WINE UP! Guide.

VILLOTA IS ALSO WHITE.

There is a tendency in Rioja to reduce the narrative to red wines. With Bodegas Villota, that would be a mistake, and a costly one in terms of what is missed.

The estate has Viura planted in 1975, alongside Garnacha Blanca, Tempranillo Blanco and Malvasía Riojana. Four varieties that, in 2014, gave rise to the winery's first white wine: a single-varietal old-vine Viura produced in very limited quantities, Villota Blanco Selección, with which Jesús Madrazo began to explore what the vineyard could offer in white wines. Over time, the varieties gained prominence both individually and in blends, eventually shaping a range of three distinct white wines: Selvanevada Blanco, Villota Blanco and Villota Blanco Selección.

Villota Blanco Selección, a 100% Viura aged for six months on lees with bâtonnage in French oak, is the most precise and vertical of the three: fine, mineral, with an acidity that supports the entire structure and a persistence that surprises. The 2018 vintage reached 94.23 points in the WINE UP! Guide. Villota Blanco, based on Viura with Garnacha Blanca and smaller proportions of Malvasía and Tempranillo Blanco, is more rounded and expressive: freshness, structure and well-integrated fruit character, without the wood overshadowing the wine. The 2022 vintage scored 94.08 points.

These are wines for those who want to understand Rioja Alavesa beyond barrel-aged Tempranillo. And Villota has been offering them for more than a decade.

A HUMAN-SCALE PROJECT IN A LARGE-SCALE APPELLATION

Rioja is vast. There are wineries of every size and projects of every kind. Bodegas Villota produces on a small scale, carefully selecting from the 52 hectares it currently works, out of nearly one hundred hectares of estate-owned vineyards. This implies decisions that are simply not possible within larger structures.

Visits are structured around the vineyard and the family's history. There is no designer tasting room. Instead, there is an estate with nearly a century of history, a meander of the Ebro River that curves just metres from the vines, and someone who explains each parcel knowing exactly why it differs from the one beside it. And then, without leaving the estate, you taste the wines with the person who knows the project best.

To illustrate this, I go back a few years, when I had the privilege of visiting the vineyard. At the following link, you can relive that experience first-hand:

LA TORPE AVUTARDA DESCANSA 2022

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,85

Cherry red with a morello rim, medium depth and very vibrant colour. On the nose, clean red fruit aromas are accompanied by subtle vanilla, hints of scrubland and a light touch of overripeness. On the palate, the tannins lend a fleshy texture, while a certain acidity provides freshness. On the finish, red fruit returns with a nuance of ripeness alongside delicate vanilla and caramel notes; the oak is well integrated, allowing the fruit to take centre stage.

Y SOLO CUANDO EL RIO CALLA 2022

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,62

Lemon yellow with old gold reflections, showing a somewhat evolved colour. On the nose, aromas of ripe pineapple, baked apple and butter emerge, alongside subtle notes of caramel and vanilla. On the palate it is flavoursome and more expressive than on the nose, with good acidity. On the finish, pineapple caramel and lemon caramel with herbs return, along with a touch of vanilla; it is quite persistent.

EL TOMILLO Y EL VIENTO BAILAN 2024

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,23

Pale lemon yellow with golden reflections, dense. On the nose it needs a little time to open up and reveal herbaceous aromas and white fruit, followed by a subtle hint of stone fruit (apricot and plum) and a background of aromatic herbs. On the palate it is fresh with good acidity, which carries through to the finish, where subtle citrus notes are joined by white flower nuances.

AL COBIJO DE UNA GRAN SABINA 2021

91 Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,00

Cherry red with a garnet rim and medium depth. On the nose it shows good intensity, with dark fruit aromas at a high degree of ripeness, accompanied by balsamic notes. Subtle toasty hints, vanilla and caramel emerge, with a background touch of black liquorice that reinforces the balsamic profile. On the palate it is fleshy, with tannins that provide structure yet are well crafted. On the finish, toasty notes, caramel and the spiced nuances from the oak return, along with that underlying black liquorice character.

CEPA DE PELAYO 2023

92 Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 92,00

Cherry red with a garnet rim and medium depth. On the nose it shows good intensity, with dark fruit and ripe stone fruit aromas, accompanied by a subtle touch of vanilla, nutmeg and a hint of pepper, all over a balsamic background. On the palate it is fresh and fleshy, with tannins that provide structure and stimulate salivation. On the finish, stone fruit and spice notes return, with a delicate floral hint of dried flowers emerging in the background.

OLE DE ROSE 2025

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,85

Brilliant raspberry red. On the nose it is intense, with a very clean fusion of red fruit — cherry and strawberry — and wild berries that lend it great aromatic vibrancy. On the palate it is very fresh and flavoursome; on the finish the red fruit and cherry notes reappear with clarity, and although somewhat more restrained in intensity than on the nose, they stand out for their cleanliness and persistence. An altogether direct and very well-balanced wine that shines for its frank, unadorned fruitiness.

CUPIDO MACABEO 2024

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,15

Lemon yellow with golden reflections and a somewhat deep colour. On the nose it is aromatic and intense, with white fruit aromas, lemon caramel and a slightly honeyed touch, accompanied by stone fruit such as plum and subtle notes of dried flowers. On the palate it is fresh; it surprises with very good acidity that counterbalances the sensation of ripe fruit. On the finish, apple, banana and lemon caramel return, along with herbal notes.

QUERCUS 2019

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 93,92

Deep ruby red with ruby reflections, medium-high depth, vibrant colour for its age (tasted in December 2025). On the nose it is complex and intense, with aromas ranging from red fruit with a note of ripeness through to cocoa, with subtle spices (vanilla and clove), cigar box (cedar), delicate black liquorice, and scrubland herbs (thyme and rosemary). Balsamic character throughout. On the palate it is a rounded wine, with noble, polished tannins that lend a fleshy texture. A certain warmth that does not intrude, amplifying the memory of ripe fruit and spices with even greater intensity than on the nose. (tasted label in sight)

HOYA LEBRERA 2024

92+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 92,38

Violet with a purple rim and high depth, with a staining tear on the glass. On the nose it is intense, with dark fruit aromas and floral nuances (violets) to the fore, accompanied by a subtle earthy touch and a marked balsamic character, almost mentholated. On the palate it is flavoursome and fresh, with good acidity; on the finish, alongside a delicate bitterness, the dark fruit notes return, while the floral profile evolves towards a vegetal hint. A wine of great chromatic vibrancy and freshness that surprises with its balsamic profile and fruit-forward character.

ARDILLA DORADA 2025

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 93,15

Lemon yellow with golden reflections and cream-toned hues. On the nose it is intense and very expressive, with clean aromas of quince and herbal infusion to the fore, accompanied by a subtle grapefruit nuance. It gains complexity with fig notes over a slightly vegetal background that lends freshness. On the palate it is a fleshy wine, with a tannic sensation that fills the mouth and grants it notable structure; at the same time it is fresh, with good acidity and a fine bitterness that prolongs the finish. The aftertaste returns aromas of stone fruit, aromatic herbs and grapefruit, rounding off with a subtle and elegant waxy touch. A white wine with volume, character and a very interesting texture.

LIENZO AIRÉN PIE FRANCO 2024

92+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 92,15

Pale lemon yellow with golden reflections, showing good colour. On the nose it is balanced, with white fruit aromas and a hint of banana, alongside notes of dried flowers and herbal infusion. On the palate it has good acidity, sufficient to provide freshness and stimulate salivation, accompanied by a subtle saline touch. On the finish, white fruit and apple return, along with herbal infusion notes and an anise nuance.

LIENZO CHARDONNAY FERM. BARRICA 2023

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,31

Intense lemon yellow with golden reflections, dense. On the nose there is good intensity, with tropical fruit aromas (ripe pineapple) blending with vanilla and caramel, along with some dried flowers. A subtle hint of pastry. On the palate it is intense and unctuous, with medium acidity that accompanies the swallow. There is a touch of warmth that carries through to the finish alongside notes of grilled pineapple, caramel, toasty hints and vanilla. An intense wine, better suited to meat than to fish.

LIENZO AIRÉN BRUT (CATA 2026)

91+ Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,23

Amarillo limón pálido con reflejos dorados y burbuja abundante. En nariz hay recuerdos de masa de pan, lías finas y frutos secos como las nueces, acompañados de manzana y un toque de flores secas. En boca presenta una burbuja abundante y una acidez media, suficiente para aportar frescor; al final deja una sensación de efervescencia que prolonga el trago. En retrogusto se potencian más los recuerdos primarios, con notas cítricas y de pera, cerrando con un matiz de caramelo.

LIENZO BLEND 2019

91 Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 91,00

Cherry red with a garnet rim and medium depth. On the nose it shows good intensity, with ripe red fruit aromas accompanied by notes of tobacco, scrubland, pepper and sweet toffee nuances, all wrapped in a marked balsamic profile. On the palate it presents tannins that provide considerable structure and that need time to soften and round out (or alternatively, a good cut of meat to accompany them). On the finish, with good persistence, the nose aromas return: ripe fruit and earthy touches.

VERUM LAS TINADAS CENCIBEL 2022

95+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Nº 2 Best In Class 2026 - Best Red wines 2023-2022 vintage

Points: 95,38

Cherry red with a morello rim and medium-low depth. On the nose it is refined, clean and intense, with red fruit and wild berry aromas (raspberry) and a subtle mineral touch in the background that adds complexity. On the palate it is exuberant thanks to its acidity and texture. Noble, polished tannins that lend a fleshy character. Medium acidity that enhances the fruit on the finish alongside a subtle floral hint. Very long, it invites you to keep drinking. It stands out for its finesse.

95+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Nº 4 Best In Class 2026 - Best Red wines 2023-2022 vintage

Points: 95,15

Rojo cereza con ribete picota y capa media-baja; denso y brillante. En nariz es intenso, con un marcado carácter terroso y mineral acompañado de Fruitness roja y toques de flores secas. Presenta una madera muy bien integrada que aporta, de forma muy sutil, notas de vainilla y caramelo. En boca destaca especialmente por su frescura, con una acidez exuberante que hace salivar. Posee un tanino fino y pulido que le otorga carnosidad. En retrogusto vuelven con Clarity los recuerdos de la Fruitness roja y las flores secas, dejando la madera en un elegante segundo plano. Un vino persistente, muy sofisticado y que invita a seguir bebiendo.

Points: 95,15

Rojo cereza con ribete granate y reflejos rubí, de capa baja y color muy pálido. En nariz es intenso, presentándose como una fusión floral de cereza y hierbas aromáticas; es un vino con un perfil aromático exuberante y diferente dentro de la gama de tintos. En boca, aunque el color pueda sugerir ligereza, es un vino con muy buena estructura, con un tanino fino que hace salivar y llena la boca, junto a una acidez media suficiente para aportar frescor. En el retrogusto vuelven con Intensity los aromas de cereza y fresa, matices florales con muchas rosas y notas de hierbas aromáticas. Es un tinto sorprendente por el contraste entre su fragilidad visual y su firmeza estructural, ofreciendo un excelente paso por boca.

Points: 95,08

Amarillo limón con reflejos dorados y muy denso en copa. En nariz es intenso, con marcados recuerdos minerales que se funden con notas de hierbas de infusión, panal de abejas, paja seca y rastrojo, sobre un fondo anisado con un sutil toque de caramelo de limón con miel. En boca es untuoso y denso, con una acidez media pero persistente que guía el trago; en el retrogusto se muestra largo e intenso, volviendo con Clarity los recuerdos de hierbas, el caramelo de limón con miel y el matiz anisado. Es un blanco de gran complejidad y volumen que destaca por su profundidad aromática.

VEGA TOLOSA ALBILLA 2024

93 Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 93,00

Golden yellow, dense and brilliant. On the nose it is complex, with a marked mineral character accompanied by stone fruit aromas, dried flowers and dry grass. It shows good intensity. On the palate it enters with force, with very good acidity that lends a sparkling sensation to the wine and enhances its freshness. On the finish it returns citrus notes of grapefruit, alongside those dried flower hints and herbaceous notes.

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 93,15

Rojo cárdeno con ribete violáceo, capa alta y una lágrima densa que tiñe la copa. En nariz es intenso y está cargado de Fruitness roja, que asume todo el protagonismo frente a matices de caramelo, vainilla y un toque de pimienta. En boca es carnoso, con un tanino que aporta estructura y una buena acidez que hace salivar; en el retrogusto se mantiene fiel al perfil olfativo, donde la Fruitness roja domina el conjunto sobre un segundo plano de madera muy bien integrada que se expresa a través de las especias. Un tinto con Body y una expresión Fruitnessl imponente.

VILLOTA SELECCION 2016

95+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 95,46

Cherry red with a garnet rim, medium-high depth and a very vibrant colour for its ten years of age (tasted in March 2026). On the nose it reveals itself as a wine of great intensity and balance, where fruit aromas, sweet spices and pepper coexist with earthy nuances and a marked balsamic profile of black liquorice, forming an ensemble of supreme elegance and fine integration. On the palate it is fresh, with noble tannins that lend a very refined fleshiness and a silky texture; the finish is a faithful reflection of the nose, returning to that harmony between red fruit, sweet spices, pepper and earthy touches in a long and distinguished close. A wine that demonstrates a magnificent evolution, maintaining its freshness and complexity within an impeccable and highly distinguished aromatic whole.

HOTO DE VIDES 2023

93+ Grand Gold Taste Wine Up! 2026

Points: 93,15

Cherry red with a morello rim, high depth and a stained tear on the glass that suggests good extraction. On the nose it shows good intensity, with ripe stone fruit to the fore, accompanied by scrubland notes, tobacco leaf and a light touch of black pepper; a very subtle vanilla emerges in the background, denoting very well-integrated oak. On the palate it is a fleshy wine, with tannins that provide structure. On the finish, the memory of ripe fruit returns, alongside a light earthy touch, black liquorice notes that contribute a balsamic character, and scrubland hints.
